Dear Tom:

Your letter of October 27 reached the office while I was away on a trip to Europe with John McCone, which accounts for the delay in answering.

Your letter is one I shall treasure. I look back upon our work together with deep satisfaction and have been proud to know you and to testify to the great contribution you made in the many important posts you held in government.

I am expecting to resume the practice of the law with my old firm of Sullivan and Cromwell in New York, possibly keeping also a place of abode here in Washington. In any event, I hope that our paths cross often.

Clover joins me in affectionate regards to Anne and to you.

With deep appreciation.

Sincerely,
